I. INTRODUCTION

This Rules and Regulations (R&R) document explains what the Association expects from you as a neighbor, as well as what you can expect from your neighbors. The R&R's have been established pursuant to Article V of the Declarations of Establishment of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&Rs), the Association's By-Laws, and by action of the Board of Directors. They apply to owners, guests, residents, tenants, and lessees (hereinafter collectively referred to as occupants) of Surfside III. From time to time, the R&R's may be changed in accordance with the current CC&R's. In addition to these R&R's, all occupants must comply with the requirements of the Davis- Sterling Act, applicable City of Port Hueneme codes and regulations, California Civil Code statutes, and all other government regulations, statutes, and codes.

Condominium living can be a pleasant and carefree experience if we all work together and exercise care and consideration for our neighbors. What you do or don't do has a direct effect on your property values and you and your neighbors' quality of living experience. We sincerely want the occupants of Surfside III to enjoy living here.

II. DISAGREEMENTS BETWEEN RESIDENTS

Many concerns and areas of disagreements between occupants can be solved by communicating directly with each other. We strongly believe that it is the responsibility of all occupants to attempt to communicate directly with neighbors to resolve day to day nuisances and to settle small disputes when possible before filing a complaint with the Surfside III office. If you are uncomfortable communicating directly with your neighbors, contact the Surfside III office.

- Do not take your complaints directly to the Board Members.
- No Board Member may make a unilateral decision regarding any matter which has not been decided by a quorum of the Board Members.

III. ENFORCEMENT OF RULES AND REGULATIONS
